BACKGROUND

I am a successful international business strategist, coach, spiritual guide and motivational speaker. For the past two decades, I have built a successful track record in the corporate world as a Executive/CEO (Nestle, Colgate, LVMH, Lalique) and entrepreneur (raised $45M+ for my last venture), and, through working with a variety of socially conscious and sustainable brands and causes.

As a life coach, spiritual guide and business strategist, I have been called upon to consult and coach some of the world's finest brands and leaders. I have been called "a dynamic and inspiring speaker" by people around the world who have been touched by my down to earth personality, warmth, humility and personal heartfelt commitment to helping others live their best life.

A bit more about my story. After a career that scaled the heights of corporate success as a CEO of global companies, I reached a turning point in my life – material success and trappings had not necessarily made me really happy or fulfilled. I had the big degree, big job and success that most people aspire for, but I was not happy.

I decided to completely change my life and embarked on a journey of self-exploration and meditation that took me from working with Mother Teresa's mission in India, to the jungles of Peru in search of finding meaning in life and fulfillment beyond the material demands of society today.

Through seeking to transform my own life to live with a higher purpose, I made a life-changing commitment to helping others in their search for peace, harmony, and happiness.

Guillaume has changed my life. And healed "ME." I went through an illness a year and a half ago called ITP where my immune system thought the platelets are cells that will hurt the body, so it attacked them causing bruising, internal bleeding and almost death. I call it an energy stress disease. The stress in my life and around me was almost killing me. No doctor could figure out how to heal without medicines that would cause extreme pain, gain weight and feel flustered all of the time. I went to doctors for months including both my parents whom are doctors did not know what to do but to give their blessing to try an alternative way of healing. At the time I turned to a fellow EOer who recommended Guillaume who has taught me many alternative practices with no medical drugs to heal with but instead it was done with the human touch and mindset. He certified me in a healing technique called reiki based on the principle that one can channel energy into others by means of touch, to activate the natural healing processes of one's body and restore physical and emotional well-being. Not only am I able to protect and heal my own body from energy and stress we go through as entrepreneurs. But now I can help others. Thank you Guillaume for showing me the light, love and healing within. I'm forever grateful. I feel blessed to share you with the EO community.
