BACKGROUND

I am a successful international business strategist, coach, spiritual guide and motivational speaker. For the past two decades, I have built a successful track record in the corporate world as a Executive/CEO (Nestle, Colgate, LVMH, Lalique) and entrepreneur (raised $45M+ for my last venture), and, through working with a variety of socially conscious and sustainable brands and causes.

As a life coach, spiritual guide and business strategist, I have been called upon to consult and coach some of the world's finest brands and leaders. I have been called "a dynamic and inspiring speaker" by people around the world who have been touched by my down to earth personality, warmth, humility and personal heartfelt commitment to helping others live their best life.

A bit more about my story. After a career that scaled the heights of corporate success as a CEO of global companies, I reached a turning point in my life – material success and trappings had not necessarily made me really happy or fulfilled. I had the big degree, big job and success that most people aspire for, but I was not happy.

I decided to completely change my life and embarked on a journey of self-exploration and meditation that took me from working with Mother Teresa's mission in India, to the jungles of Peru in search of finding meaning in life and fulfillment beyond the material demands of society today.
